Boston, February 4. 1849.

My dear Miss Weston,

While we were packing the Box yesterday I found, on one of the Shelves (near ~~where~~ where your pile of "Bells" had lain, & a little back) a single "Bell" addressed in your handwriting to Miss Hewzell. Was this left out purposely or by mistake?

If the latter, there is time to rectify it, as the Ship's departure is delayed till Wednesday, on account of the Snow, the Mate informed me. (I wish we had known this before yesterday.) - If therefore you wish Miss Hewzell's Bell sent in the box, please give me a line without delay, adding her address, and I will put it in an envelope & see it in the box. If you have anything else to send, there is yet a little room.

You will get this, I trust, tomorrow (Monday) morning. If you write me in reply tomorrow, I shall get your answer

Tuesday morning, which will be in season.
I intend to send the box to the ship on Tuesday.

Mr. Garrison's portrait was finished at last - framed, glazed, & enclosed in a nice tight box; - the frame was a very pretty oval one.

I am, Very truly Yours

Saml May Jr
